

The Young Family, Missionaries to the People of Honduras

"Come over... and help us."
Acts 16:9

Dear Churches and Friends,

December 2018

It is the end of our first year and we are continuing to make progress on deputation. We have many more meetings secured next year and our support is starting to come in. We have enjoyed meeting people at the many different churches who share the same burden of reaching the world for Christ. It has been an amazing year. We had the opportunity to give back just before Christmas by attending Homeless No More Baptist Church. I was able to lead the music service with Christmas Hymns and we served the homeless men and woman with clothing and food. We still believe in the power of prayer and so we are excited about these people supporting us in prayer, as we pray for them.

Though we have had a burden for missions for many years, God began confirming with us back in January where He wanted us to serve. After the confirmation trip to Honduras in March and then accepting our church's call to be their representatives in Honduras back in April, we have hit the ground running as fast as practical and all within His timing. We have already put hundreds of miles on the road and have been increasing awareness of our ministry. We are ending 2018 excited for what He has already done for us and we are looking forward to 2019, which will bring us already to four different states. We are thankful for God's call on our families lives while looking forward to representing Him in Honduras for His glory.

In Christ,

Jimmie (J.D.) Young
